

Why Ordinances Ready?

The screenshot shows a mobile application interface titled "ORDINANCES READY" with a temple icon and an information icon. Below the title is a section labeled "Select Ordinance Type" containing five buttons: "Baptism and Confirmation", "Initiatory", "Endowment", "Sealing to Parents", and "Sealing to Spouse".

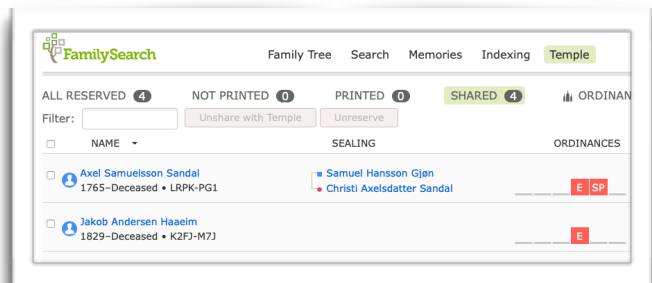

- ✎ Fully complies with all current temple policies.
- ✎ Uses reasonable relationship connections.
- ✎ Provides names of relatives shared with temple.
- ✎ Provides work for just one temple visit.
- ✎ Prevents bloated temple reservation lists.
- ✎ Does not provide names with duplicates or data errors.
- ✎ Does not provide names of people requiring permission.
- ✎ Prevents names from sitting in reservation lists for years.

Ordinances Ready Names Are Found In The Following Order:

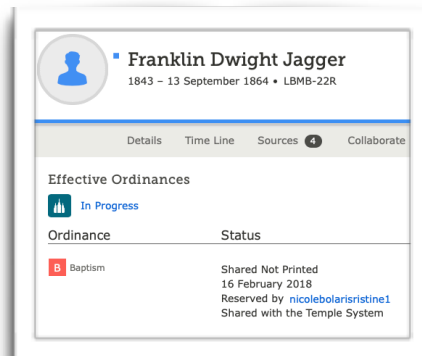

1. Your existing reservation list.

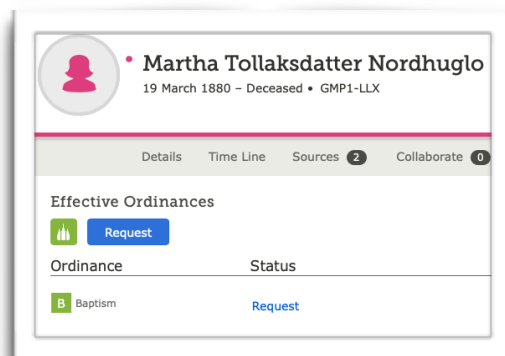

2. Names you have shared with the temple.

3. Related individuals that others have shared with the temple.

4. Related individuals with a green temple icon.

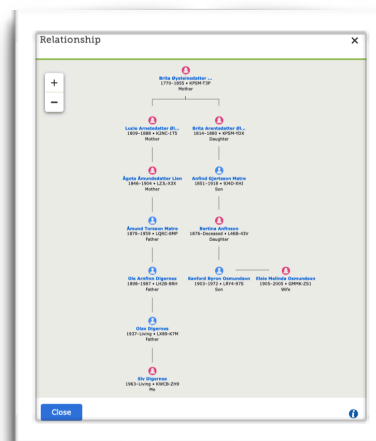

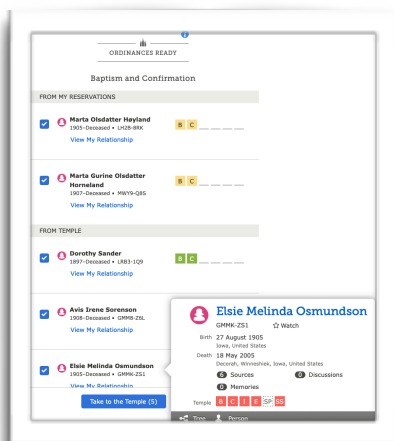

5. Individuals that others have shared with the temple without a known relationship to you.

Family History and Ordinances Ready

A Suggested Workflow

- I.
2. Run Ordinances Ready several days before a temple trip to find a name. Click on the name to open the individual's detail page.
3. Click on View My Relationship to see how this person is connected to you.

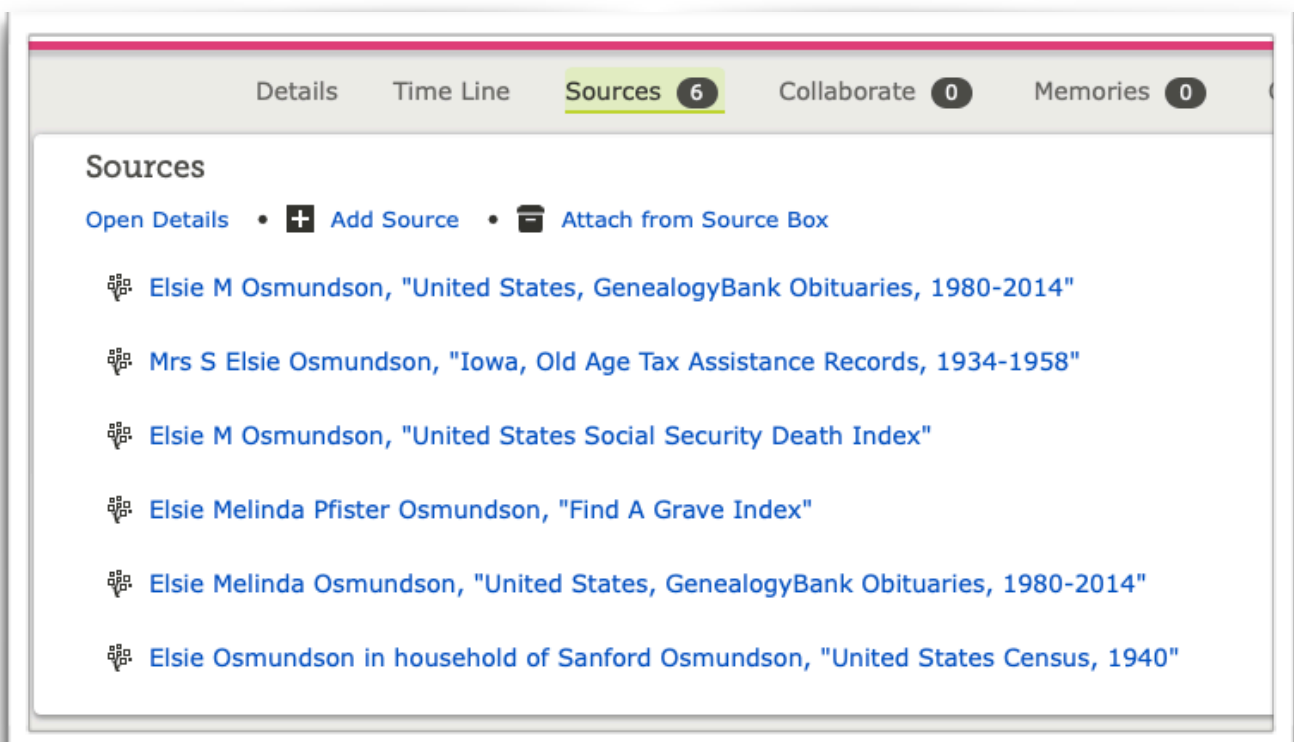

4. Scan the Vitals section - How complete is the information? Could anything be improved? Are dates and places properly formatted? Take care of any problems.

5. Click on Time Line - See where the person lived. See if all residences look reasonable or if some may need correction. Fix any problems.

6. Click on Sources - Open and read them all. What do they tell you about this person? Do they all seem to apply to this person? If not, remove them. Is there information in the sources that is missing from the detail page? Add it. Take a look at any original documents attached. Practice reading such documents. Is there more information about the person in the document? If so, add this, also. If needed, rearrange the sources into an order that makes them easy to read.

7. Click on Collaborate - Read through any notes and discussions.
8. Click on Memories - Look through them all, if any, and see what you can learn about this person.

9. Check the ordinance page - Were these shared with the temple? How long has this person been waiting? Are there green icons? Might a closer relative be wanting to reserve these? Do you need to message someone about these?

Ordinance	Status
Baptism	Shared Not Printed 13 October 2018 Reserved by Ben Floyd Shared with the Temple System
Confirmation	Shared Not Printed 13 October 2018 Reserved by Ben Floyd Shared with the Temple System
Initiatory	Shared Not Printed 13 October 2018 Reserved by Ben Floyd Shared with the Temple System
Endowment	Shared Not Printed 13 October 2018 Reserved by Ben Floyd Shared with the Temple System

10. Check the Research Help section - Are there data problems to fix, research items to be pondered, or hints to be evaluated? Take care of these.

▼ Research Help
Show All 2

- ! Missing Standardized Burial...
- ⚭ Couple May Have Children

▼ Research Help
Show All 7

- Jon Bengtsson
Sweden, Household Examination Books, 1880-1930
- Jon Bengtsson
Sweden, Household Examination Books, 1880-1930
- Jon Bengtsson
Sweden, Household Examination Books, 1880-1930

11. Open the Latest Changes section by clicking Show All - Who has been working on this individual? Do you recognize the user names? Scroll to the very end - when was this entry created in Family Tree? Years ago or yesterday?

12. In the Family Members section click on the names of parents, siblings, and children - Are there other ordinances you can help with or that you should complete first?

13. Use the Search Records section to see if you can find more information about the person.

14. Use the Search menu to try to add one new source to the person.

15. Use Google to do a quick search for more information about the person to try to add one new source.

